$65 for Western Suffolk BOCES School Health A-506 CoSer Members
AUDIENCE: School Nurses, School Nurse Practitioners
FACILITATOR: Linda Dychkowski, RN, BSN, SNT

DESCRIPTION: This annual school nursing workshop will provide school nurses with current clinical information that affects the practice of school nursing and the delivery of school health services including the management of chronic and acute student illnesses, injuries and other health-related barriers that impact on optimal learning experiences and potential. In its seventh year, this popular event offers school nurses the opportunity to keep updated in their field, to network with other school nurses and to better plan, access and utilize current school nursing/school health models and delivery systems. An expanded framework of school nursing will be presented through best practices models, case studies, panel discussions, and Internet resources and support. Some of the topics that will be presented at this year's workshop include:

- Bed Bug and Head Lice Policies Based on Current Recommendations
- Skills to Improve Communications in the School Setting
- Teenage Pregnancy
- Tools for School Nurses
- Medication Administration, FERPA, Documentation
- Practice Scenarios
- Discussions, Q & A

~ Rhoda Berkson, former School Nurse/School Nurse Teacher/Health Teacher will be presenting "Talking the Talk"
